

Delivery

All deliveries are made by our preferred courier services and although we cannot guarantee we aim for next normal working day (any item on a Friday would generally be delivered on the Monday of the following week). This relates to smaller items such as our accessories; to facilitate our aim of next working day then any order should be confirmed before 2pm but would be subject to stock availabilities.

Delivery costs are based upon the final weight of your parcel or pallet and any requested special delivery requests. These would be agreed at the time of your order. It is important that somebody is around to receive and sign for the goods. Please note any damage needs to be reported to us in writing on the day the goods are received by you and the couriers paperwork noted with any signs of damage to goods or packaging.

However in any event the couriers accept no responsibility for damage unless a claim is made within 3 days of the delivery being signed for.

For returns and cancellations please refer to our terms and conditions page.
